

6516205234.txt

I got xm radio largely because of local stations being owned by conglomerates and loss of local identity and range of stuff to listen to on the air. I now have flexibility and choice that I previously only dreamed of. I think I should also be able to listen to the traffic and weather on xm radio.